MEMOS. FOR TO-MORROW

Hardly has it been stated that the Chinese and German liners, which are now plying regularly, when one looks at the Mexican-Macao-Portuguese or Pacific steamers. The promoters of the new line just left Lisbon, where they arranged everything with the owners of the Macao and Amoy lines, and are now on their way to Macao. The Chinese steamers will come from Hongkong, call at Amoy, the Sandwich islands, in Francisco, and stop at Salina Cruz, in Mexico.

It will prove to be of great advantage to the Portuguese colony, which is a rival of Hongkong and Canton, and possesses, in addition, its geographical situation, exceptional advantages. Formerly the passage through the port of Macao of Chinese ships was forbidden; only the free emigration of laborers destined to Portuguese colonies was allowed, and the maintenance of the number 9th, 1882, permitted the unloading at the port of Macao of all kinds of emigrants without reference to their

Under these circumstances the new line will help greatly and promote Chinese immigration, inasmuch as Mexico is now making a big market undertaking, and

It is conceded that the projected steamship line will be practically supported by the Government of Mexico, since its vessels will be mainly employed for the carrying of Chinese emigrants.

SHOOTER AT BIRMINGHAM—A BULLET FIRED AT HIM IN DENMARK.
Copenhagen, October 5th.—The Czar has been subjected to a scare within a week. Fortunately neither occasion had any serious sequel. While the Czar was entertaining in the woods of Fredensburg, in company with the King and the Prince of Wales, a family, a bullet headed past his head and entered a tree within a yard of the Czar.

It is still a mystery where it came from who fired it. The bullet was picked small rifle of a caliber unlike anything in the armory of the castle. Nobody was caught and nothing could be discovered concerning what certainly looked like a particularly bold attempt at assassination.

The second incident was rather ludicrous, except that the constant fear in which the czar lives makes every occurrence of the kind a severe shock to his nerves. During the service at the break church in the city while the Czar was kneeling in prayer, a tremendous crash like the breaking of glass resounded from the Imperial pew.

The Czar started to his feet and intense alarm prevailed throughout the church.

The first impression was that a dynamite bomb had been thrown at him and the congregation was in the wildest consternation for a few minutes.

The guards from the imperial yacht rushed to the Czar's seat, and there they found a large globe shattered to pieces. A portion of the chandelier had fallen, while all around had been broken and the noise had caused all the confusion. As soon as the guards had retired service was quietly resumed.

A black and white photograph showing a highly textured, grainy surface, likely a wall or ceiling. The texture consists of numerous small, dark specks and fibers. A dark, horizontal band runs across the bottom of the image. In the upper right quadrant, there is a small, faint, circular mark that appears to be a hole or a small object. The overall image is very noisy and has a high-contrast, grainy appearance.
